Chapter 6

Believers Are Dead to Sin, Alive to God

1 aWhat shall we say then? Are we to bcontinue in sin so that grace may increase?
2 aMay it never be! How shall we who adied to sin still live in it?
3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been abaptized into bChrist† Jesus† have been baptized into His† death?
4 Therefore we have been aburied with Him† through baptism into death, so that as Christ† was braised from the dead through the cglory of the Father, so we too might walk in anewness of life.
5 For aif we have become bunited with Him† in the likeness of His† death, certainly we shall also be c*in the likeness* of His† resurrection,
6 knowing this, that our aold bself was bcrucified with Him†, in order that our cbody of sin might be ddone away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin;
7 for athe who has died is bfreed from sin.
8 Now aif we have died with Christ†, we believe that we shall also live with Him†,
9 knowing that Christ†, having been araised from the dead, bis never to die again; bdeath no longer is master over Him†.
10 For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God.
11 Even so consider yourselves to be adead to sin, but alive to God in Christ† Jesus†.
12 Therefore do not let sin areign in your mortal body so that you obey its lusts,
13 and do not go on apresenting bthe members of your body to sin as cinstruments of unrighteousness; but bpresent yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as cinstruments of righteousness to God.
14 For asin shall not bbe master over you, for cyou are not under law but aunder grace.
